THE PROBLEM

We have identified three major problems in the current Education System of India

- 1. 'Digital India' is not prepared for Digital Education - There is no Unified Platform that's compatible to transform any "Traditional Education Institution" into a "Digital School" that's suited for the Post Covid World of the 21st Century
- 2. Homogenous Educational Services - Due to a lot of similar courses & products available in the market and the unavailability of a Non-Biased Guide, parents find it difficult to trust and choose any new educational service/course for their child
- 3. High Costs Low Quality - The costs of education have substantially increased over the years but there is little or no growth in the quality of Teaching-Learning Experience

THE SOLUTION

A Holistic Digital Ecosystem that can bring all the stakeholders of an education system to one common platform, allowing them to perform all possible activities ranging from school administration to teaching-learning activities and 21st century skill training courses to progress monitoring & purchasing of school essentials for parents
